

Western and Central North Dakota

June – August 2013

Climate Outlook

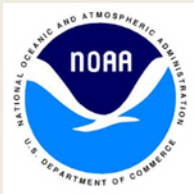

National Weather Service
Bismarck, ND

Climate Outlook Highlights

- June 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored statewide.
- June – August 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored across most of North Dakota.
 - The exception is the far southwest where above normal temperatures are favored.
 - Areas impacted by drought will see improvement.

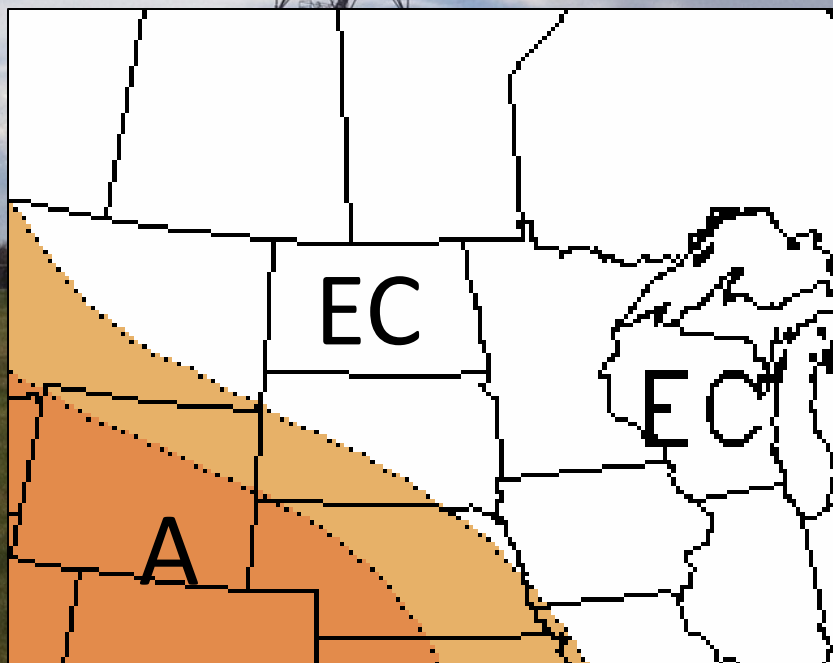

Monthly Outlook

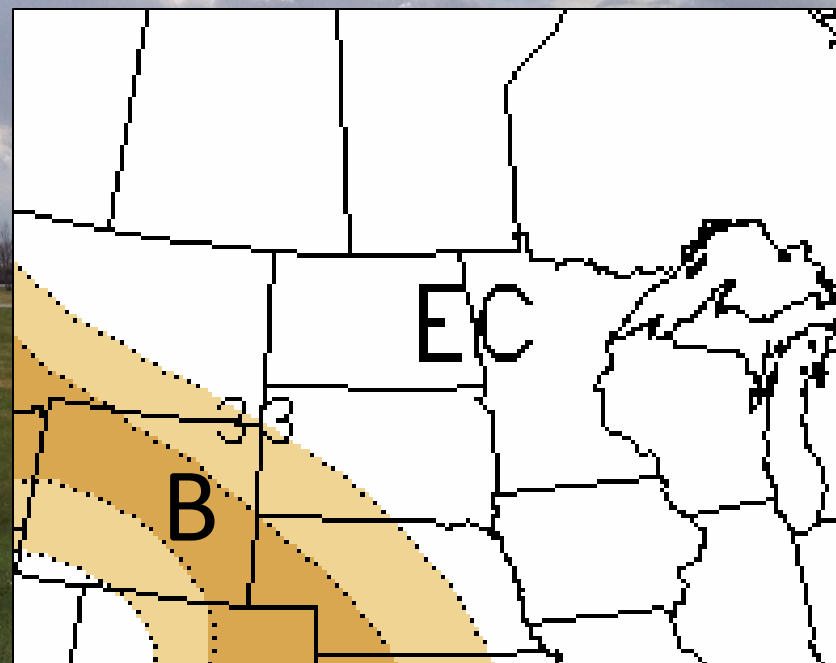

June 2013

Temperature

Precipitation

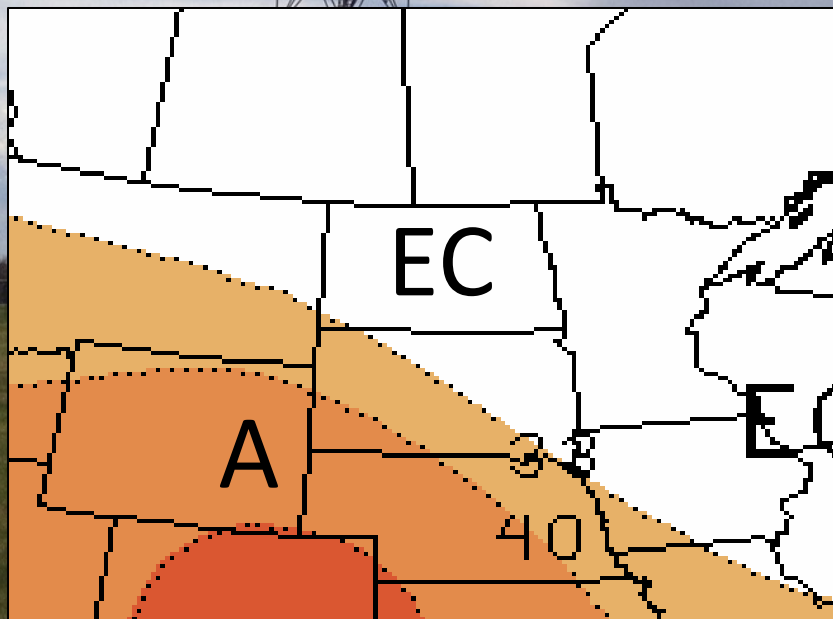

Three Month Outlook

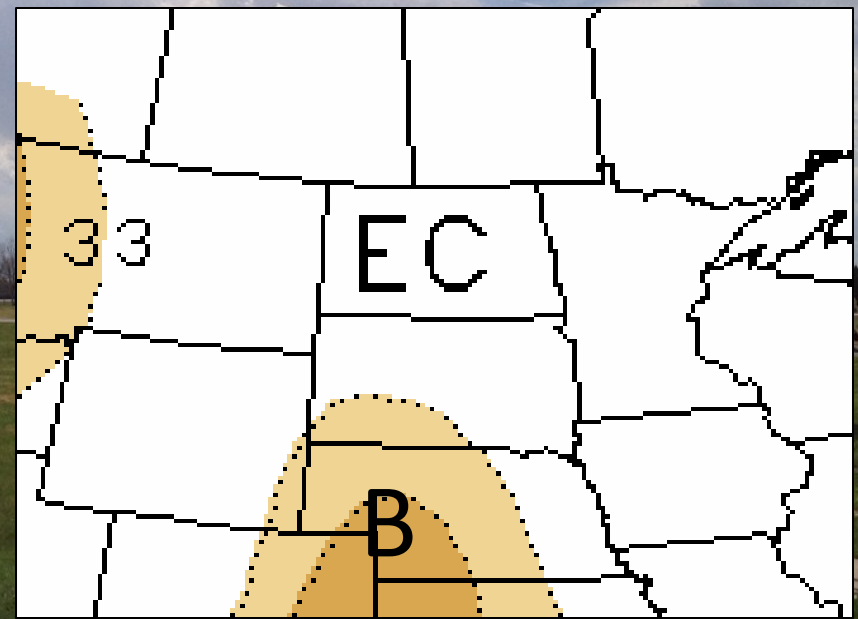

June – August 2013

Temperature

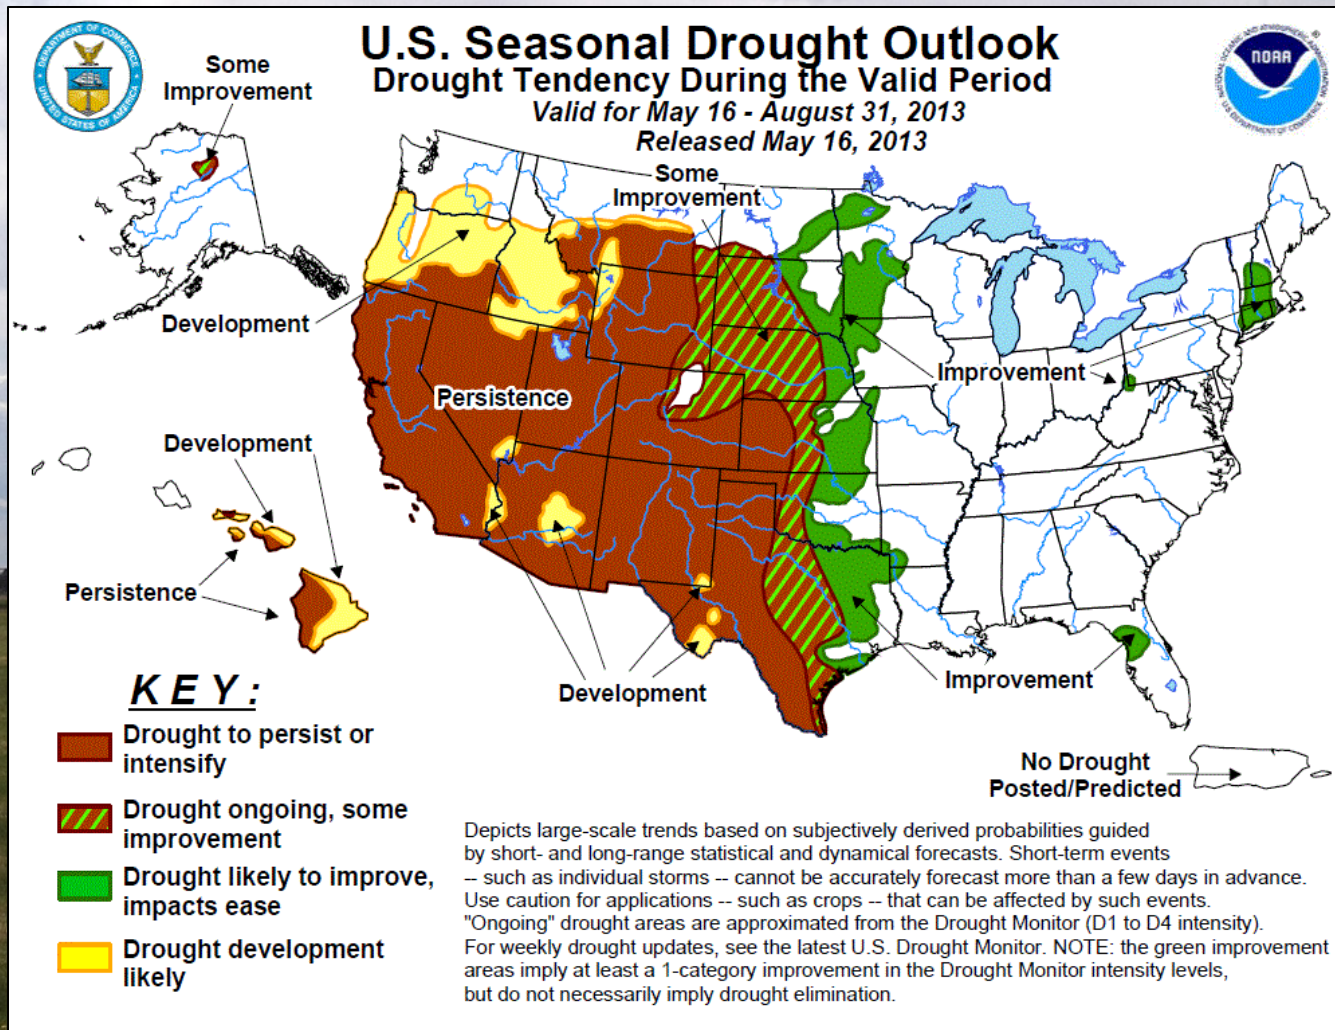

Precipitation

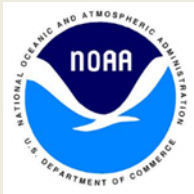

Drought Outlook

May 16 – August 31, 2013

Climate Outlook Highlights

- June 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored statewide.
- June – August 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored across most of North Dakota.
 - The exception is the far southwest where above normal temperatures are favored.
 - Areas impacted by drought will see improvement.